

MASH UP Online

We're so excited that you will be joining us for the
Mash Up Online on Monday 13th July

To get prepared please find a list below of instruments and alternatives you can use to take part in our workshops. Please share the suggested list with pupils working from home.

Junk Samba Bonanza - 11.30am

Surdo:

Anything big and hollow sounding, an upside down bucket or big plastic tub. A Floor tom-tom from a drumkit.

Repinique:

Any small plastic tub. Smaller tom-toms from a drumkit.

Caixa:

Snare drum from a drumkit or a small tub with marbles in. Something with a 'buzz' sound to it or a metal cake tin.

Tamborim:

A small handheld drum. A hard plastic picnic plate, striking the bottom. Lid of a plastic tub.

Agogo-bells:

Anything metal sounding. Cowbell - strike towards the open end of the bell. Metal pots or pans.

Ganza:

Any form of shaker. An empty Pringles tube $\frac{1}{4}$ filled with beads or rice. A plastic water bottle with rice or similar.

A pack of tic-tacs, half empty.

Dorset Big Sing - 2.30pm

You can prepare by sharing access to the Charanga resource for the Bill Withers track 'Lean on Me'. You can share with pupils at home via the Yumu function on Charanga. If you need support with this please contact the DMS team.
